CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

The Company was formed for production of musical theatre. Members may actively participate in all aspects of production when requested.

The overriding authority of the Company is the member elected Committee. The Committee appoints Producer and Director for each production and it is implicit that their direction is taken.

The decisions of the Casting Committee are final.

Costumes and properties remain the property of the Company. It is expected that all care is taken and items are returned promptly and in reasonable and clean condition at the end of each production.

Members, while involved in Company business, will conduct themselves in a responsible manner.

Parents will countersign membership applications of minors, taking Conditions of Membership into consideration.

Membership of the Company is contingent upon payment of an annual membership fee, which covers non-production administrative expenses, such as insurance.

The Company's annual fees may increase from time to time at the direction of a general meeting.

A general meeting can be called by the members at any time.

The Company appoints members to form an executive Committee. Non-committee members are invited to committee meetings but are unable to vote.

Matters of concern, which come to the attention of the members, should be directed to the Committee.

As a general rule, the minimum age for membership is 15. However, this is left to the discretion of the Committee and will be dealt with on an individual basis where the need arises.
